offices under your control to preserve the waste paper and deliver it to the Agents of the Company when they go round to collect it. The Company has undertaken to supply suitable bags for storing the paper and will arrange for the periodical removal of the waste paper at its own expense. I request that the total weight of waste paper delivered to the Company from all offices under your control may be kindly intimated to this office in the following form once a month, so as to facilitate the transmission of a consolidated bill to the Paper Mills for arranging payment. The statement may be kindly sent so as to reach this office not later than the 10th of the following month.
